THE CRAYON;

A WEEKLY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO THE

GRAPHIC ARTS,

AND THE LITERATURE RELATED TO THEM.

IN PRESENTING THIS NEW ENTERPRISE TO the Public, the Editors propose to supply a want long felt by those who are interested in Art, of a journal which should advocate its interests—a medium between Art-thinkers and Art-lovers—between those who have studied and desire to instruct, and those who have admired and desire to learn.

In undertaking to fill this vacant field, we promise that with all the power given us we will endeavor to lead those whom we may influence, to the perception of the Highest Beauty, or at least, to the distinguishing the difference between that which is beautiful and that which seems so; and to prefer that which is true and earnest, to that which is only powerful or attractive by display of superficial excellence.

In this work we shall spare no pains to secure the co-operation of the most powerful writers of whatever country, and particularly that of Artists themselves, whose communications possess a practical value the thoughts of mere theorists can never have. Our Foreign Correspondence will be the most complete and valuable we can secure, and will be drawn from all places of interest in an artistic point of view.

Our plan, while it includes essays on all the Representative Arts, will not be limited to the purely instructive development of the Principles of Art, but will be open to its Romance and its Poetic relations, and, incidentally, to the aesthetics of Dress, Music, the Drama, and all things wherein Beauty makes daily approach to our unpoetic lives.

Criticism will in all cases be placed in the hands of those who, by education as well as by feeling, are qualified to judge in the premises.

"THE CRAYON" consists of 16 pages, quarto, printed in handsome type, in three columns, and is published at $3.00 per annum, payable in advance.

W. J. STILLMAN & J. DURAND,

Editors and Proprietors.

Publication Office, No. 237 Broadway, Corner of Park Place.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS

From W. C. Bryant (Evening Post).

"THE CRAYON."—The Crayon strikes us as a remarkably well-chosen name for a journal devoted to the Arts of Design and to their auxiliary or related literature. Mr. STILLMAN, to a practical knowledge of Art as a landscape painter, in which his fidelity to nature is a remarkable characteristic, joins the habit of reflecting and speculating on the philosophy of Art, a personal acquaintance with some of the best writers on the Arts of Design in other countries, a large extent of reading in that department, and no small share of literary skill. His colleague, Mr. DURAND, is a man of highly cultivated taste in Art, who has had the opportunity of carefully studying its finest master-pieces in the galleries of Europe. Both of them are men of diligence and capacity, and will spare no pains to give spirit and variety to their periodical."

From the Christian Inquirer.

"We anticipate a glorious feast from the weekly provision of such caterers. THE CRAYON is not to be a teacher of technical criticisms, a mere artists' paper, intelligible only to connoisseurs and amateurs. It will take the ground that all have a direct concern in Art; that it is a solid interest of society whose neglect injures every one; whose culture and support blesses all. To make Art popular without making it superficial; to apply it universally without degrading or falsifying it; to take it out of the confined, technical atmosphere of the gallery or studio, and place it in the common air of human life, this we hope and believe is the object of THE CRAYON."

From the Independent.

"JOURNAL OF ART.—We are glad to learn that Messrs. Stillman & Durand, both eminent in the literature and in the profession of Art, propose to establish a weekly journal devoted to the Graphic Arts. The enterprise is worthy of the support of all who would encourage the love of the Beautiful, and that refined taste which is based upon the true morality of Art. We wish it success, and doubt not that the eminent names enlisted in the journal as contributors, will secure for it from the first, a large and appreciative number of subscribers."

From the Journal of Commerce.

"A journal of this kind, in the hands of so competent conductors, may be expected to aid efficiently in forming and diffusing a taste for Art, and the enterprise has our most cordial wishes for its success."

PHOTOGRAPHIC OIL PAINTINGS ON CANVAS.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVE JUST PATENTED their new process for taking Photographic Impressions on Canvas, and are now prepared to take them in this city. Faithful life-size portraits made by this process from daguerreotypes of deceased persons.
